

Syntax Scope & Sequence- 2022

Explicit Teaching Sequence Kindergarten – Year 6

“Writing and reading are related”

Research has shown that when students receive writing instruction, their reading fluency and comprehension improve.

This scope and sequence should be used with the text The Writing Revolution (TWR) (Hochman & Wexler, 2017).

The Writing Revolution Principles (Hochman & Wexler, 2017)

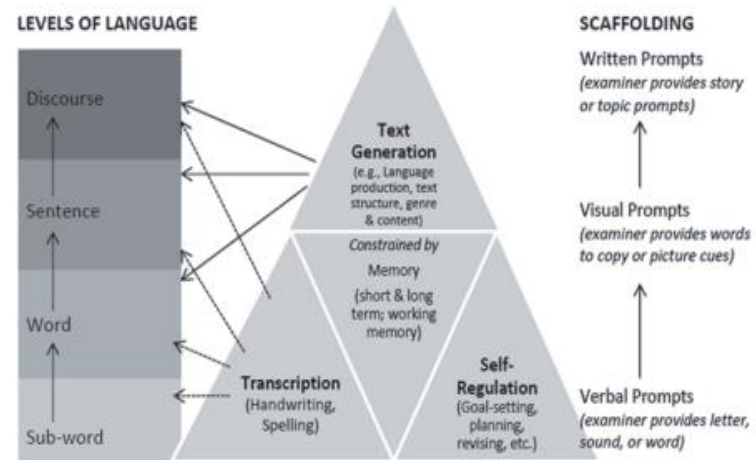

1. Students need explicit instruction in writing, beginning in the early years.
2. Sentences are the building blocks of all writing.
3. When embedded into the content learning areas of the curriculum, writing instruction is a powerful teaching tool.
4. The content of the curriculum should drive the writing activities.
5. Grammar is best taught in context of student writing.
6. The two most important phases of writing process are planning and revising.

The Key Reading Comprehension Strategies (Oakhill, Cain, Elbro 2015) (Rosenshine & Meister 1993)

1. Building vocabulary and background knowledge.
2. Knowledge of sentence structure and how to make connections between sentences and paragraphs.
3. Knowledge of text structure and text types (genres).
4. Inferencing skills.
5. Self-monitoring of comprehension/questioning.
6. Summarisation.

Explicit Teaching of Sentence Structure

Instructional Model

I Do Whole Class

Teach/revise concepts/types of sentence/sentence strategy.
Compose and analyse sentences with 'think aloud'.
Teach grammar terminology e.g. noun, verb, sentence, fragment etc.
Teach and highlight punctuation.
Provide examples and non-examples.
Break sentences into parts. Discuss and analyse parts.
Incorporate Tier 2 vocabulary instruction.
Use sentences from literature/theme work/HaSS/Science/Health.

We Do Whole Class/Small Group

Revise key teaching points.
Co construct/modify sentences.
Innovate and change parts of sentences with student suggestions orally and in written form.
Provide options for students if required.
Provide deliberate practice opportunities for students working with teacher guidance and/or in small groups/pairs.
Teachers provide feedback and guide corrections.

You Do Individual/Small Group

Revise key teaching points.
Students modify, construct, generate sentences on own orally and in written form.
Students share sentence work with class.
Teachers provide feedback.

TWR strategies should be done in sequence but total mastery isn't necessary before moving onto another strategy. It is important to keep circling back and reviewing previously taught strategies. For a complete list of strategies, see The Writing Revolution (Hochman & Wexler, 2017)
